WHAT IF
The Rich Create One Corporation Running Everything Worldwide?
‘PLUTOCRACY’ ASKS

Coming in time right before the elections, a topical SF near future graphic novel with a chillingly all-too-real scenario: All the corporations end up forming one major global mega merge which becomes the de facto ruling entity. The richer you are, the more you own shares of this corporation, the more important your vote. Those who rule are the largest owners. Conversely....

It's 2051, and the Trumps and Berlusconis of the world have taken over. One anonymous citizen has enough and wants to investigate how this came to pass. Intriguingly, he is not discouraged from doing so, in fact he even ends up financed by the corporation...

Spanish author Abraham Martinez presents a dark vision of a very possible future seeped in moody tones and highly structured art a la Bauhaus. The result will surprise you.
